An aerial photograph of a desert canyon, showing deep red and orange rock formations and winding paths. The text is overlaid on the image.

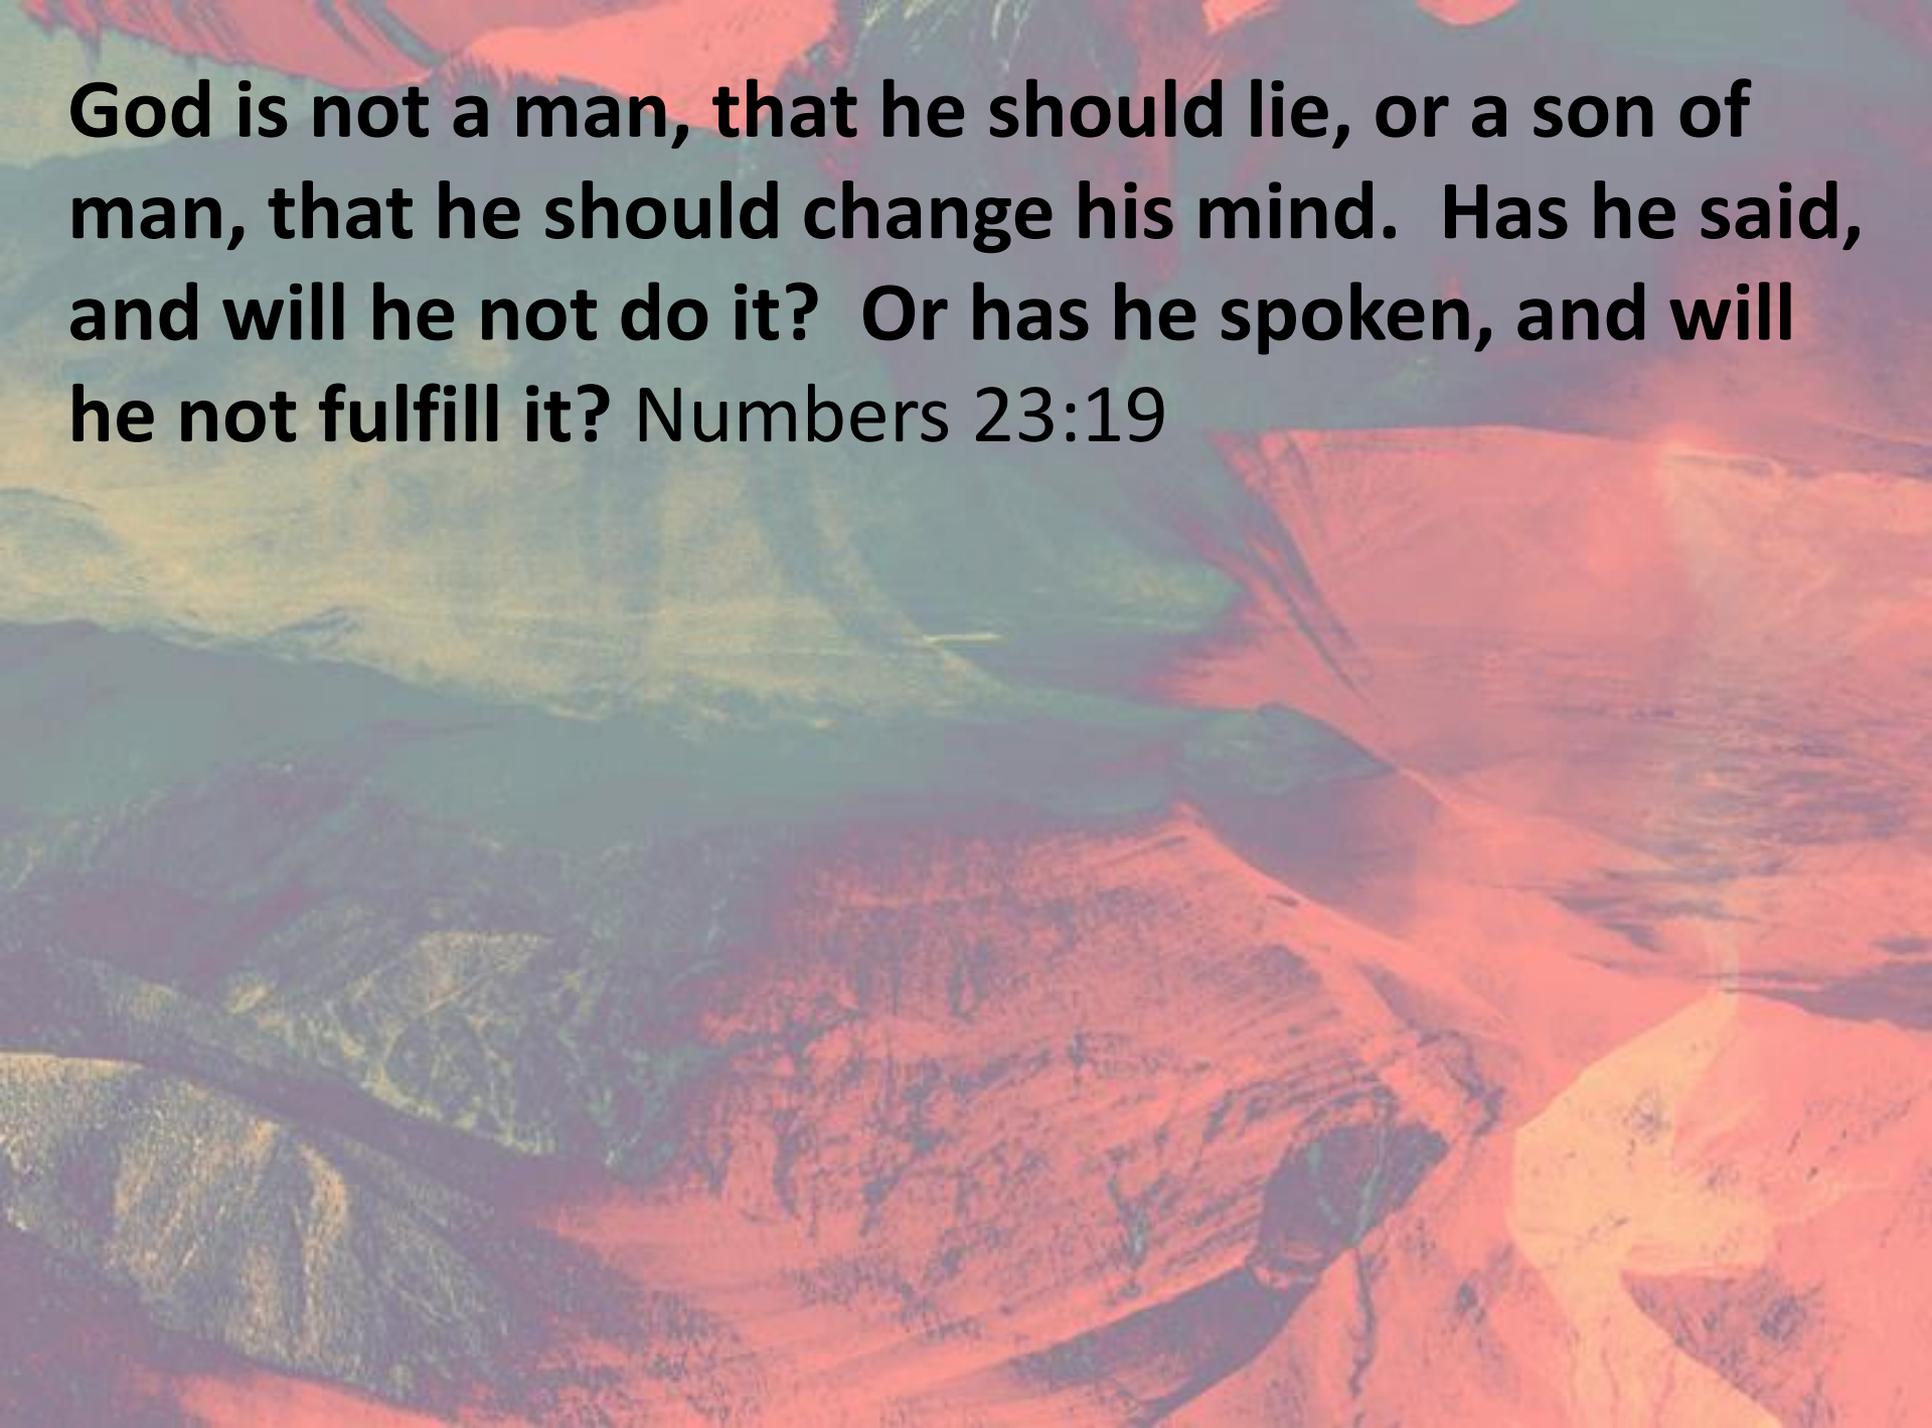

Exodus 20:16

God has called His people to speak the truth.

16“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

An aerial photograph of a desert canyon. The landscape is characterized by rolling red sand dunes and deep, narrow gullies. Patches of green vegetation, likely scrub brush or small trees, are scattered across the canyon floor and on the slopes. The lighting creates strong shadows, emphasizing the rugged terrain.

God is not a man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it? Numbers 23:19

God is not a man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it? Numbers 23:19

I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

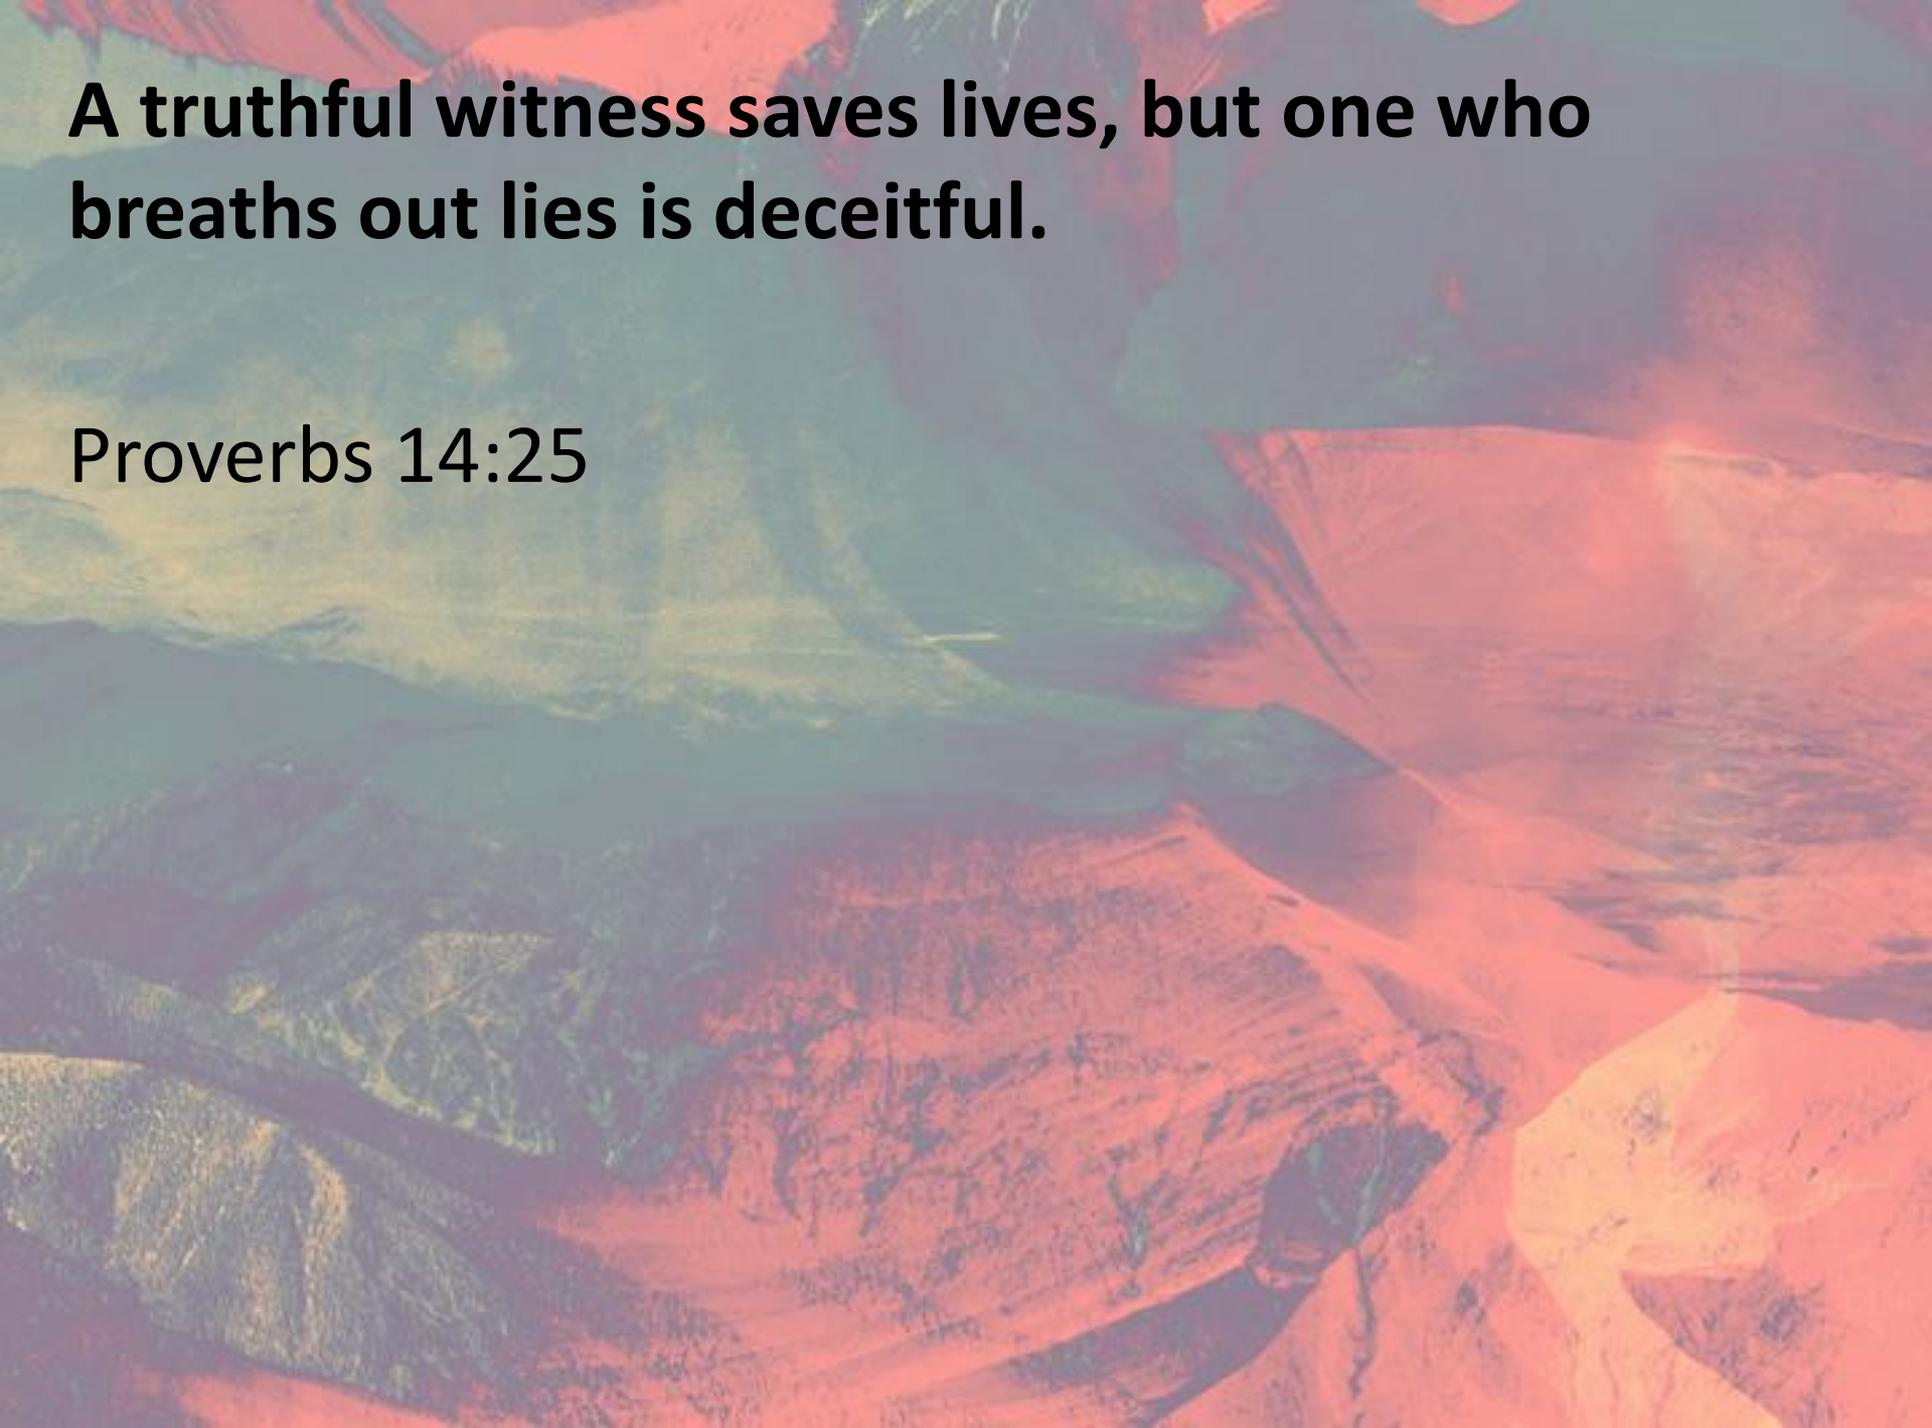

John 14:6

God is not a man, that he should lie, or a son of man, that he should change his mind. Has he said, and will he not do it? Or has he spoken, and will he not fulfill it? Numbers 23:19

I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

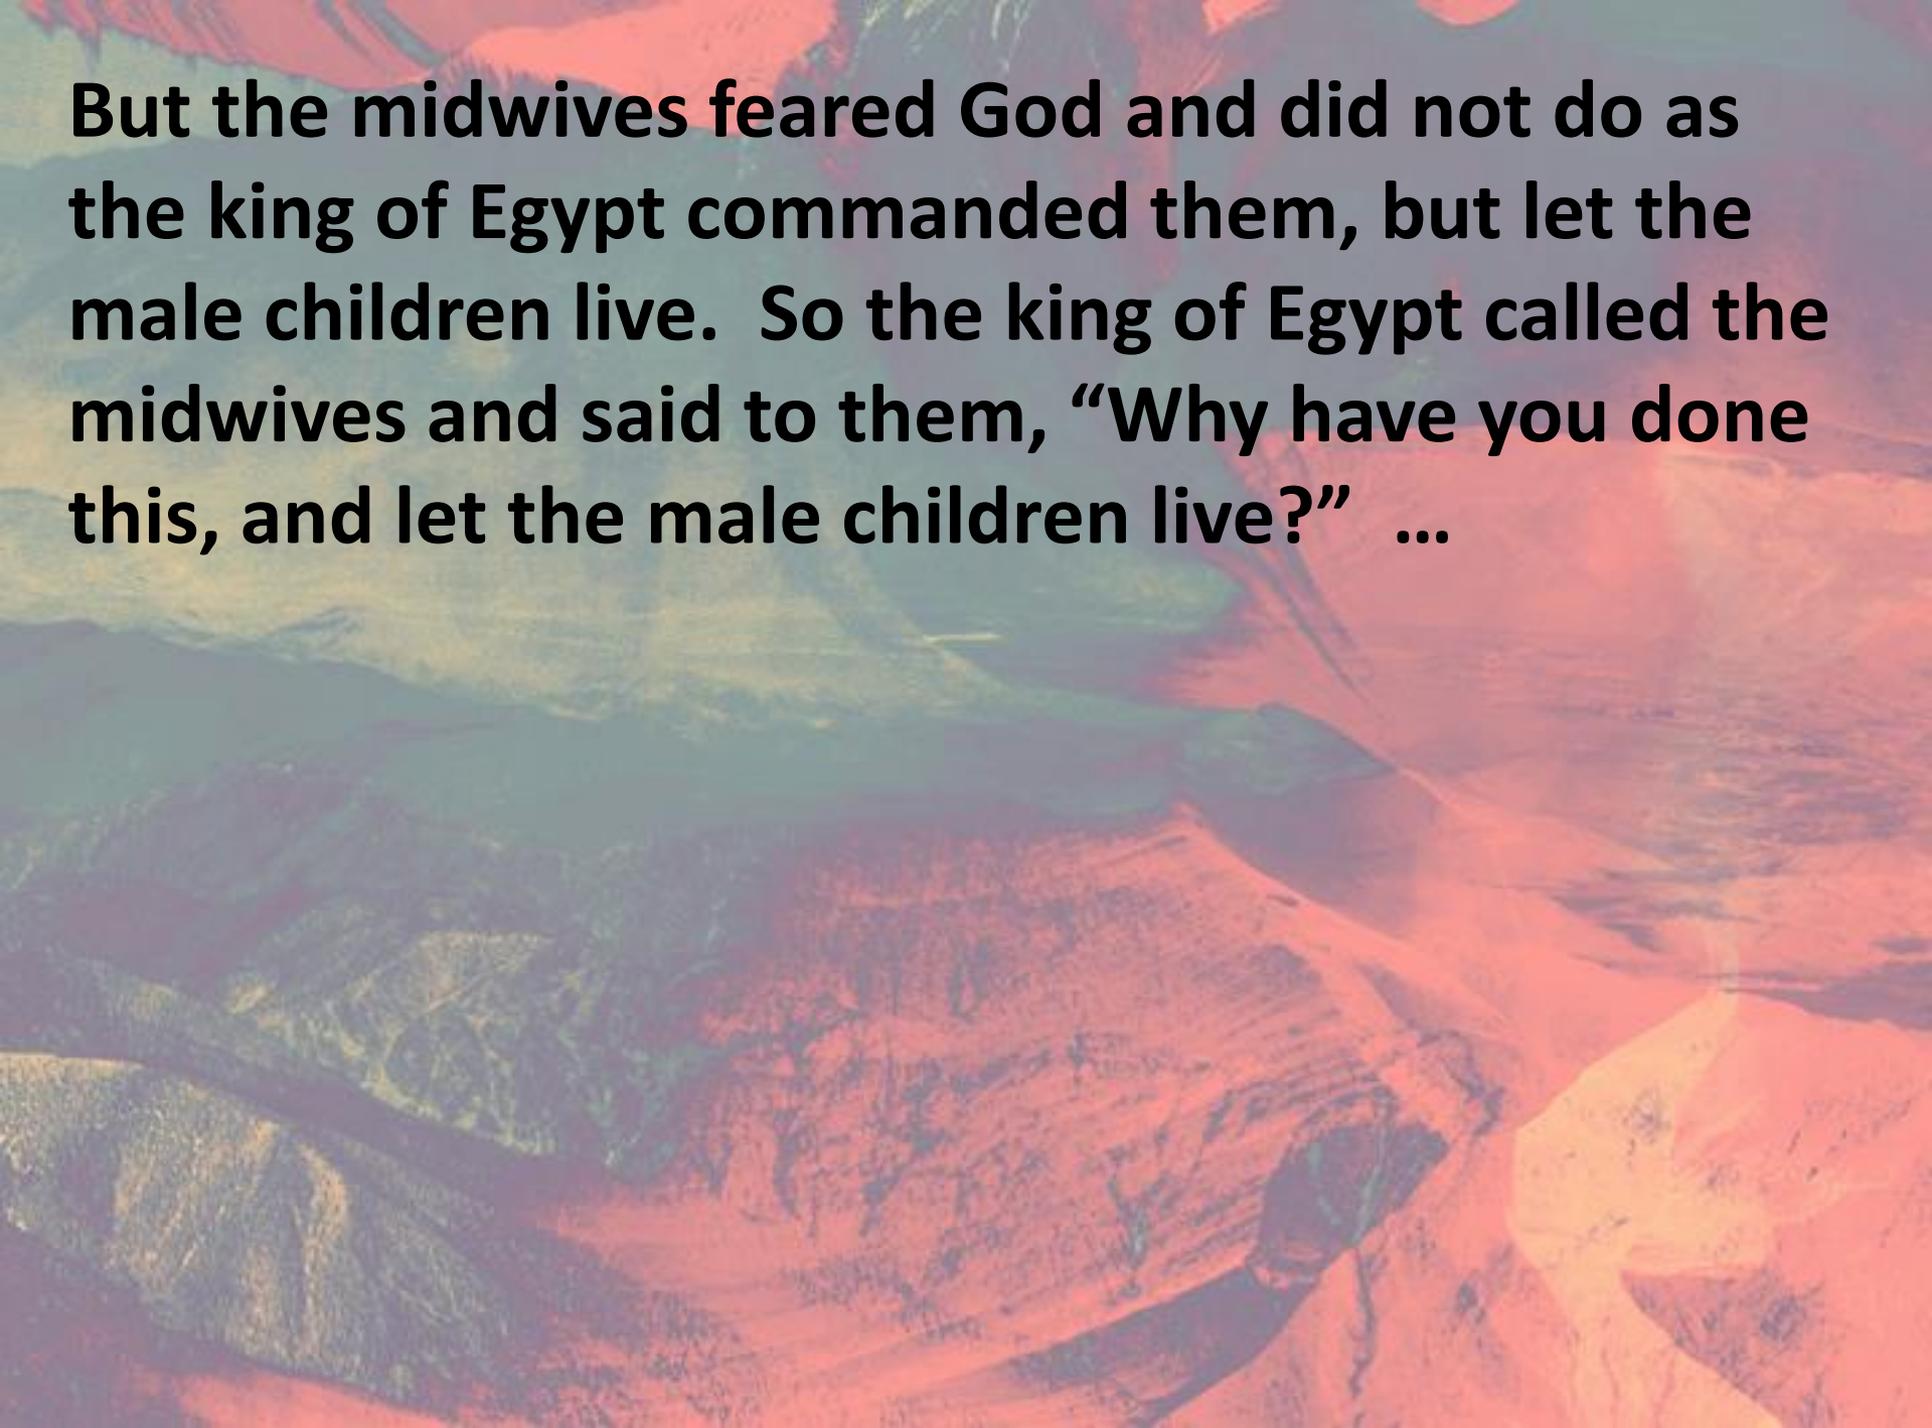

John 14:6

He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. 1 Pet 2:22

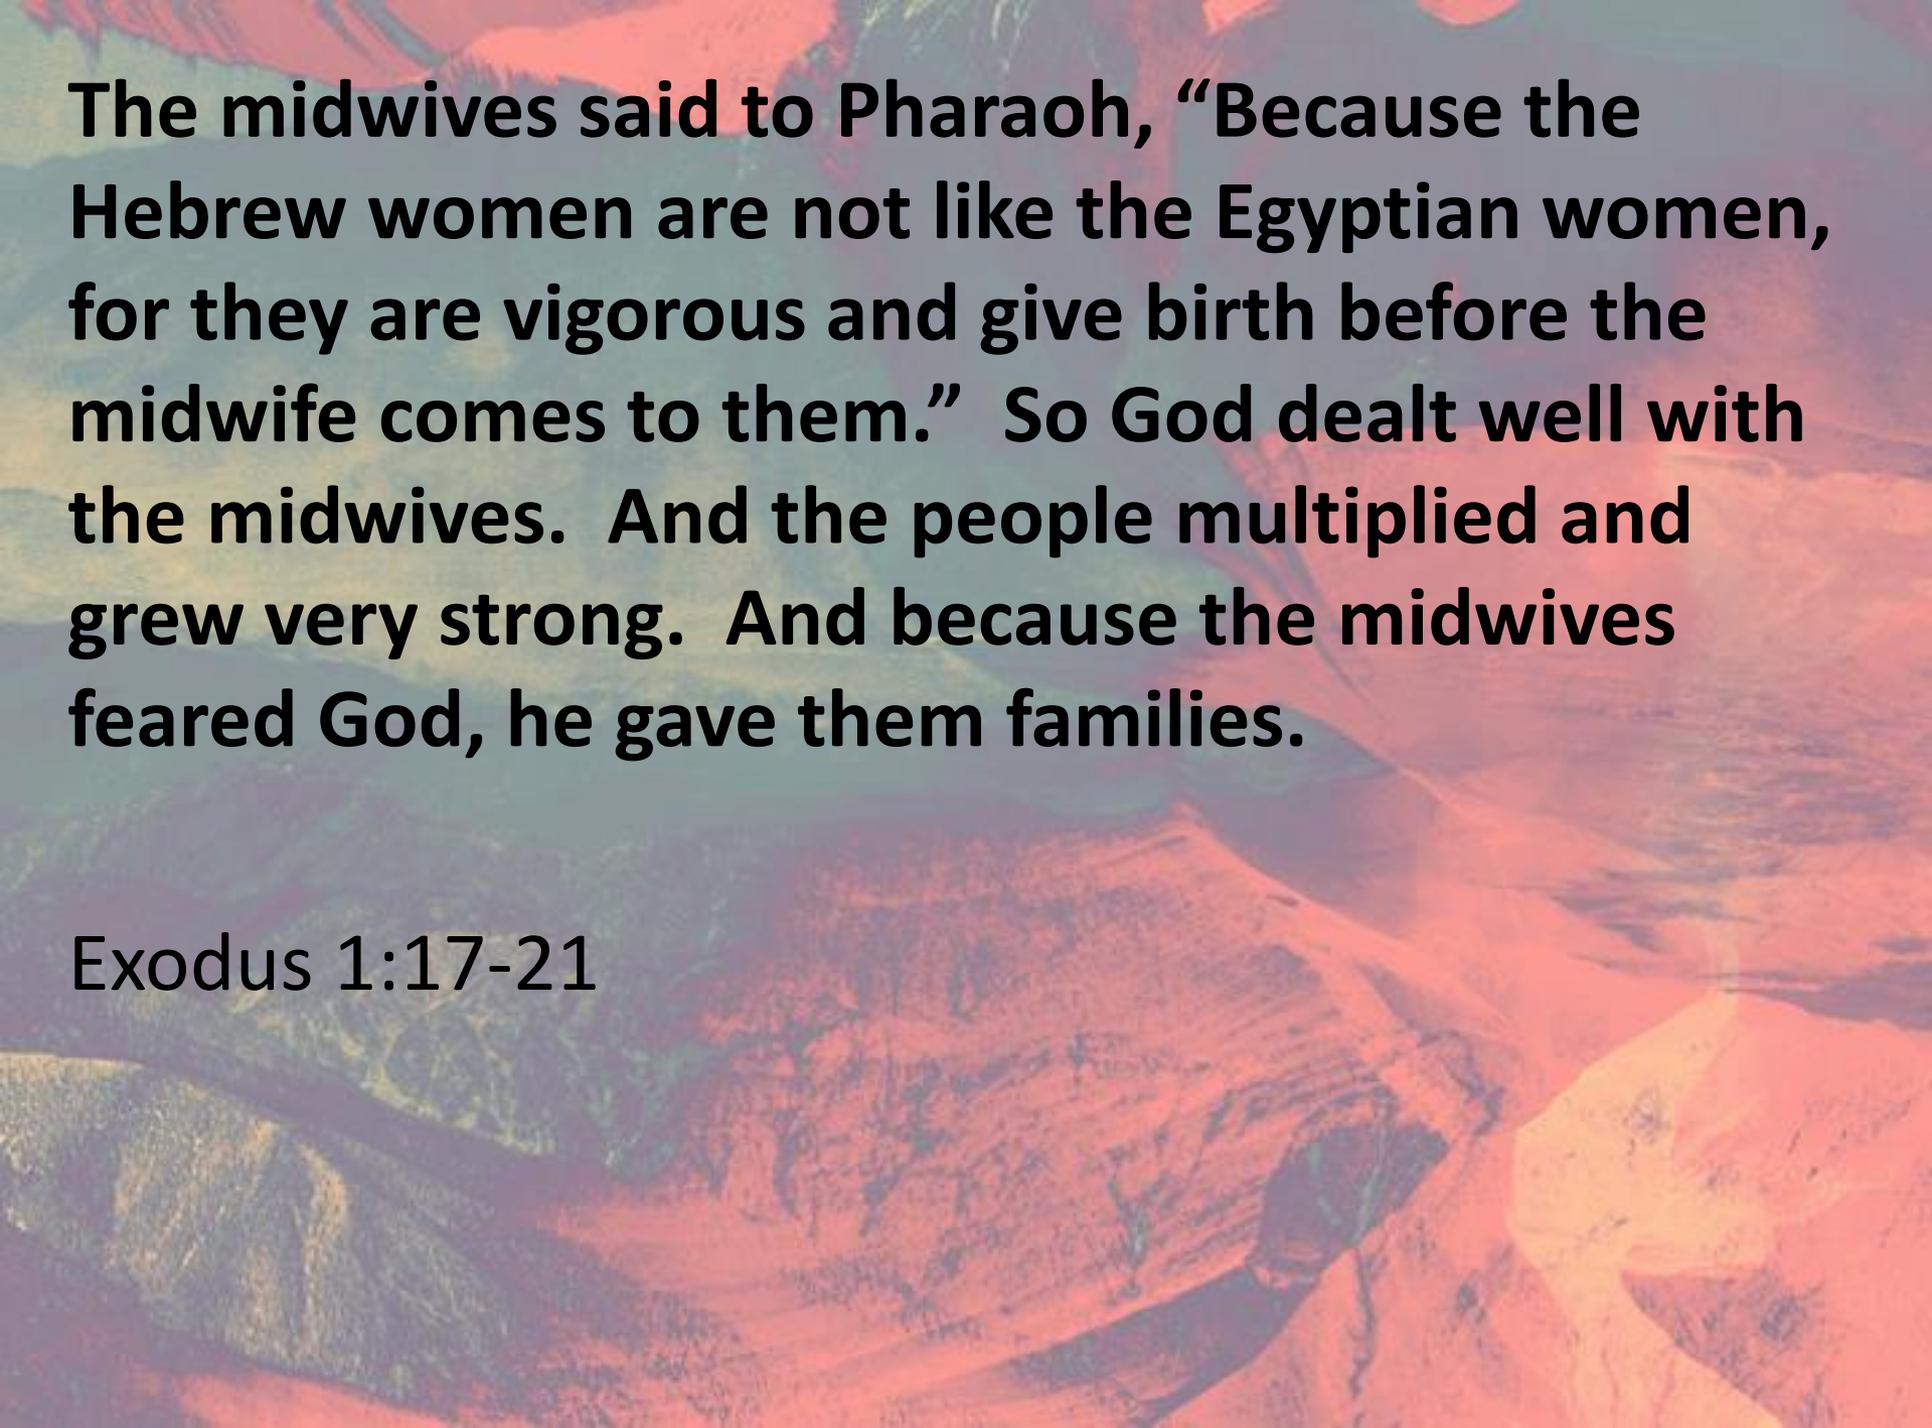

An aerial photograph of a desert canyon. The landscape is characterized by rolling sand dunes in shades of red and orange, interspersed with patches of green vegetation. The lighting creates strong shadows, highlighting the textures of the sand and the density of the trees. The overall scene is a vast, rugged natural environment.

A truthful witness saves lives, but one who breaths out lies is deceitful.

Proverbs 14:25

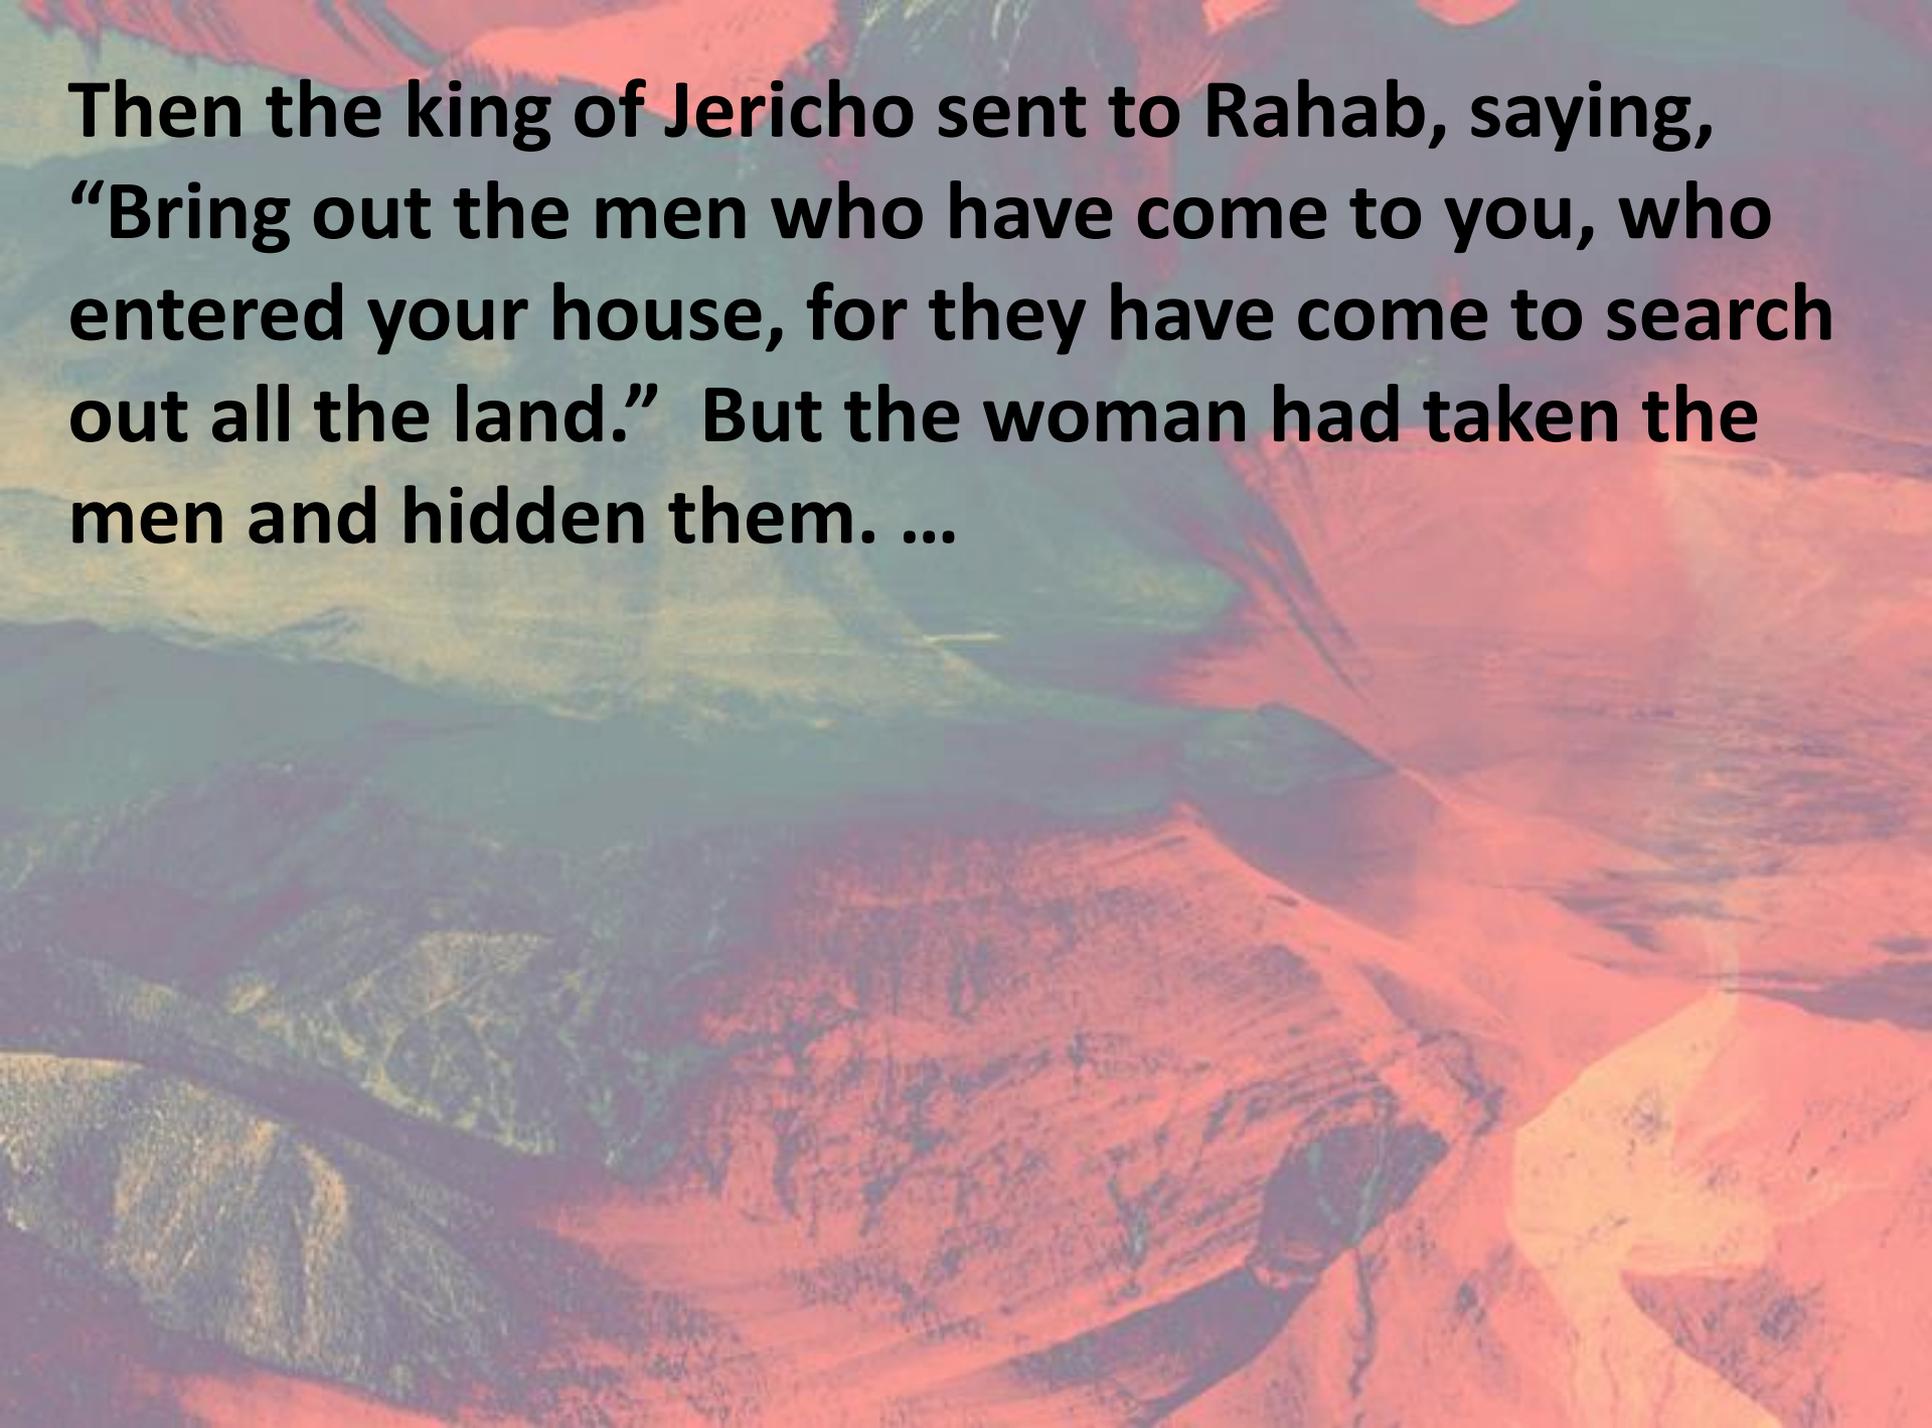

An aerial photograph of a desert landscape. A winding river flows through the center of the image, surrounded by lush green vegetation. The surrounding hills and valleys are covered in a mix of green and brown, suggesting a semi-arid environment. The overall scene is captured from a high angle, showing the intricate patterns of the terrain.

But the midwives feared God and did not do as the king of Egypt commanded them, but let the male children live. So the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them, “Why have you done this, and let the male children live?” ...

The background of the slide is a photograph of a desert landscape. A winding river, likely the Nile, flows through the scene, reflecting the sky. The terrain is arid and rocky, with some sparse vegetation. In the distance, a person can be seen walking along the riverbank. The overall color palette is dominated by warm tones of orange, red, and yellow, with some cooler blues and greens in the sky and water.

The midwives said to Pharaoh, “Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women, for they are vigorous and give birth before the midwife comes to them.” So God dealt well with the midwives. And the people multiplied and grew very strong. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families.

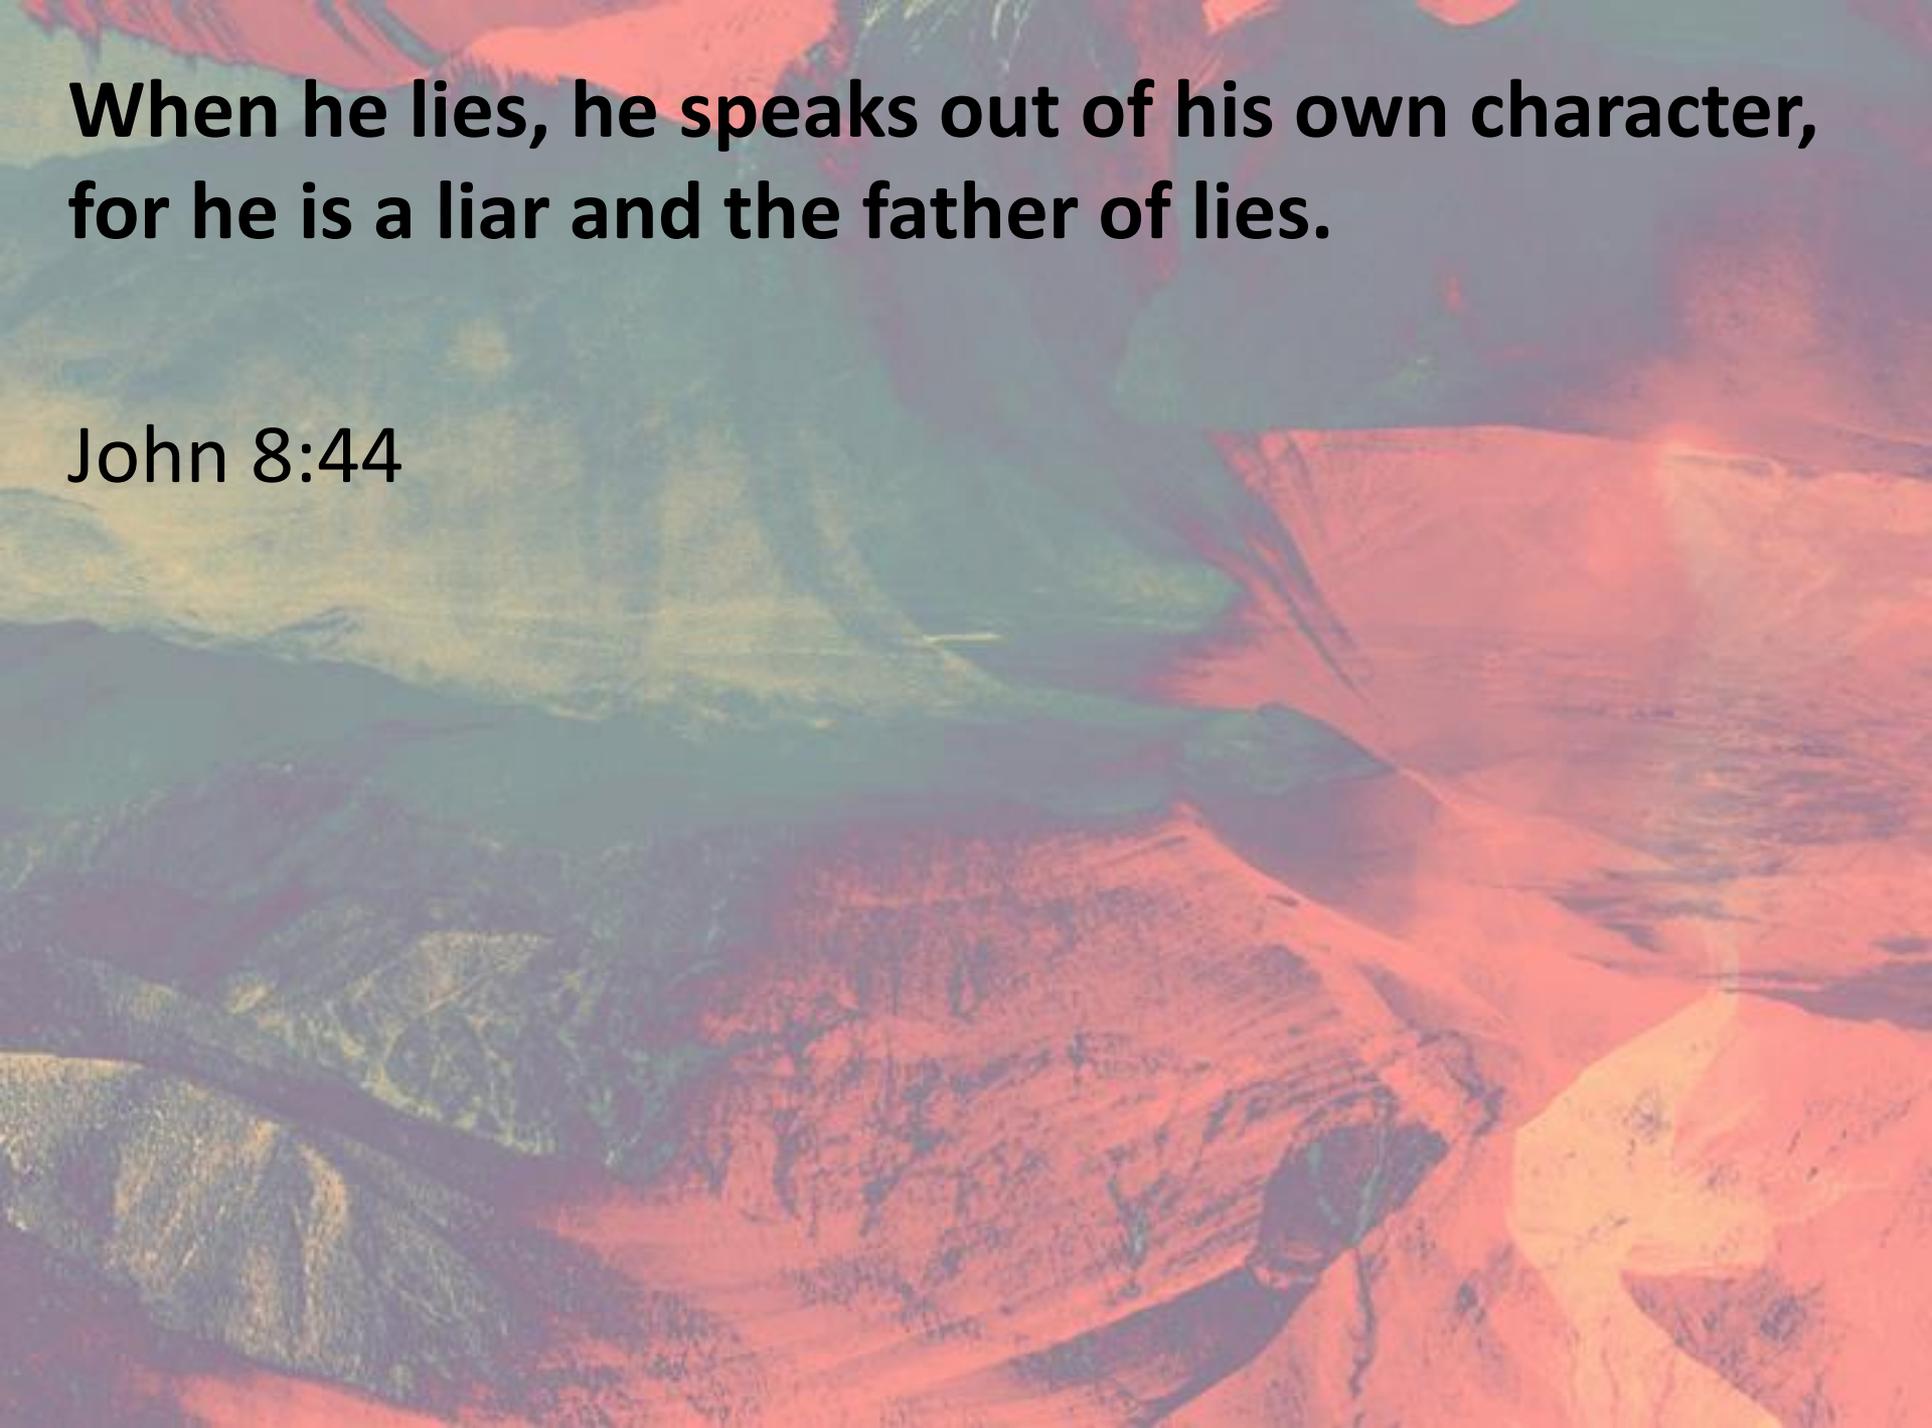

Exodus 1:17-21

An aerial photograph of a desert canyon. The landscape is characterized by deep, winding canyons and a river that flows through the center. The terrain is rugged and rocky, with a mix of reddish-brown and tan hues. A winding road is visible on the right side of the canyon. The overall scene is a vast, open landscape with significant elevation changes.

Then the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land.” But the woman had taken the men and hidden them. ...

And she said, “True, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. And when the gate was about to be closed at dark, the men went out. I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, for you will overtake them.” But she had brought them up to the roof and hid them with the stalks of flax that she had laid in order on the roof.

Joshua 2:3-6

An aerial photograph of a desert canyon. The landscape is characterized by rolling sand dunes in shades of red, orange, and yellow. Patches of green vegetation are scattered throughout the canyon floor and on the slopes. The lighting creates strong shadows, highlighting the textures of the sand and the ruggedness of the terrain.

When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies.

John 8:44

Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

Hebrews 10: 23-25

During this time of reflection,
please consider this question:

How do you need to grow as a truth teller?
