

Our God has always defeated His enemies
and delivered His people.

A Victory Chant

Psalm 124

A song of Ascents. Of David.

¹If it had not been the LORD who was on our side—
let Israel now say—

²if it had not been the LORD who was on our side
when people rose up against us,

³then they would have swallowed us up alive,
when their anger was kindled against us;

⁴then the flood would have swept us away,
the torrent would have gone over us;

⁵then over us would have gone
the raging waters.

When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, ALL the Philistines went up to search for David.

2 Samuel 5:17

What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. ...

Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?
Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? ...
No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:31-35; 37-39

⁶Blessed be the LORD,
who has not given us
as prey to their teeth!

⁷We have escaped like a bird
from the snare of the fowlers;
the snare is broken,
and we have escaped!

⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

During this time of reflection,
please consider this question:

Would you consider how the Lord has delivered you?
