

JESUS

T H E M O S T P O W E R F U L

Jesus' Hometown

The believer will trust divine knowledge over his own.

A stylized, light-colored illustration of a landscape with rolling hills and trees, located at the bottom of the page.

mark

Jesus' Hometown

Mark 6:1

A stylized, light-colored illustration of a landscape with rolling hills and trees, located at the bottom of the page.

mark

¹He went away from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him.

²And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get these things? What is the wisdom given to him? How are such mighty works done by his hands? ³Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him.

mark

⁴And Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household.” ⁵And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and healed them. ⁶And he marveled because of their unbelief.

“There were many there who grew up with Jesus, lived across the street from Him, played with Him when he was a little boy. He was a local boy. Nothing about Him or His family that should make Him famous. He was just ordinary. Familiarity made it harder for them to believe Him. It was a hard time for them to see through His veil of ordinariness.”

C.E.B. Crainfield

mark

During this time of reflection:

Have I allowed the veil of ordinariness to obscure the grandeur of Jesus?

mark