The Crown of Old Age

Proverbs 16:31

<sup>31</sup> Gray hair is a crown of glory;
it is gained in a righteous life.

<sup>32</sup> Whoever is slow to anger is better than the mighty,
and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city.

<sup>33</sup> The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.

than a house full of feasting with strife.

<sup>2</sup> A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who acts shamefully

and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.

<sup>3</sup> The crucible is for silver, and the furnace is for gold,

and the LORD tests hearts. ...

- <sup>4</sup> An evildoer listens to wicked lips,
and a liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
- <sup>5</sup> Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker;
he who is glad at calamity will not go unpunished.
- <sup>6</sup> Grandchildren are the crown of the aged,
and the glory of children is their fathers.

During this time of reflection:

What type of hero are you aspiring to be?

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people,<sup>12</sup> training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, <sup>13</sup> waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ,<sup>14</sup> who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.

Titus 2:11-14
